JOHN MARSHALL H.S.

Vol XII Number 1

FALL 83

333 Graduate in 83

"He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much," was the motto for the graduating class of '83.

The class numbered 333 with valedictorian honors going to Rosanne Carey.

Commencement, the 128th to be held, was on June 10th.

ALUMNI DRIVE RAISES $7500

The JMH Alumni Drive was held in the Fall of '83. At press time near the end of November, the Alumni Office had raised nearly $7,500 to support its activities.

Monies are used for limited scholarships and publication and mailing of the Alumni Newsletter. THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT AND FAITH.

Klesert's Sculptures

Shown at the right is a limited edition of the "Prescott Roper" by William Klesert, June '46.

Bill is a sculptor and painter of the Southwest who is best known for his Hopi Kachina Dancers. The bronze statue shown is one of only 25 made and sells for $1500.

School Notes

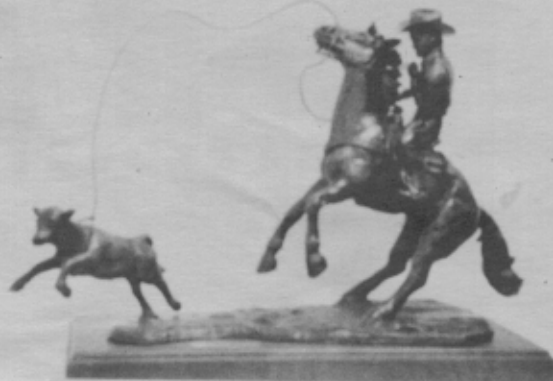

The JMH automotive classes are in need of old lawnmower engines to disassemble as a first year project. Engines do not have to be runnings. Contact Mr. Russell Marx at Marshall at 251-5740.

Jobs are needed for students in the Occupational Work Program. Alumni are requested to contact Mr. John Jacobson at the school at 251-3766.

The Alumni Board of Trustees has designated the school treasurer, Mrs. Alice Allen, to receive all donations and make all disbursements. The Alumni Office will still record these on its computer system.

The JMH Drama Department will present "The Wizard of Oz" on December 21, 1983. The performance will be between 8 a.m. and 10:30. Contact Mr. David Jecmen for information at 251-5740.

A Christmas concert by the JMH Band and Choir will be held on December 22nd near 9 a.m. If you would like to attend, contact Mr. Willie Dykes at 251-5740.

Mendes Napoli, June '69 was recently promoted to general manager of WNGE-Channel 2 in Nashville, Tennessee. WNGE is owned by the Knight-Ridder newspaper chain.

Napoli got the "news bug" when he wrote a column in the Interpreter while at Marshall. He enrolled at Cleveland State majoring in Communications.

His first job was part-time with WEWS-TV in Cleveland. He eventually served as assistant producer of news, public affairs, news documentaries and some specials.

Mendes also worked at TV stations in West Palm Beach, Florida and Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Four Teachers Retire

Four JMH teachers retired this past summer. Helen Lammers taught English at Marshall since 1962. Mrs. Lammers had a Masters in Secondary Education from the University of Michigan.

Virginia Decker started at John Marshall in 1969 after teaching many years in the Cleveland System. She taught Home Economics.

Sidney Fain came to JM in 1979. He was the chairman of the Special Education Department.

Bill Quayle retired from his position as Athletic Director and department chairman of Physical Education. He was previously head football coach at Marshall. Bill started at JMH in 1962.

Faculty Deaths

New A D

John Jacobson

The Alumni Association sadly reports the deaths of two former faculty members this past summer.

Mary Ann Michalsky taught English at JMH in 1957. She transferred to Carl Shuler Junior High when it opened in 1958 where she remained until 1965. She taught at Willson and Wilbur Wright Jr. High Schools. She held a BA from Fenn and Masters from C.S.U. She was 49.

Charlie Dunkel taught in the Cleveland Schools for 46 years. He came to JMH from Collinwood in 1944. At Marshall until 1965, he taught industrial arts.

He held a BA from Western Reserve and was 84 at the time of death.

John Jacobson was recently appointed as JMH Athletic Director by principal William Tomko.

Jacobson started teaching at Marshall in 1962 for the Industrial Arts Dept. He is currently the coordinator for the Occupational Work Experience program.

He was the J.V. Basketball coach and holds a B.S. from Kent State University.

New Lawyer Logo

Stern determination and hustle are portrayed in the new logo for JMH.

Designed by Art Department chairman John Page, the logo appears on clothing sold by the Athletic Department.

There is currently a contest at Marshall to choose a name for the "Lawyer". Alumni who would like to submit a name can call us at 252-1110.

The new logo is to replace Larry Lawyer, the goat, who was used for many years. The logo will also be seen on many Alumni letters and stationary.

Alumni Aide Selina Robinson is shown modelling the new JMH logo on a T-shirt and hat available from the Athletic Dept.

T-shirts are $5, sweat shirts are $10, and caps are $4. Mail your check to:
